

Refund & Cancellation Policy

Habitto1 relies on this Refund and Cancellation Policy to ensure customer satisfaction. When a customer contacts us by phone or email, our initial response is to assist getting technical support or customer service. However, in some cases our solution may be unsatisfactory to the customer for reasons completely beyond our control, in which case a refund or a cancellation may be processed.

Habitto1's Refund Policy

Our refund policy is as follows:

Habitto1 will, in its sole and absolute discretion, allow for the refund of the fee paid in exchange for our services within 15 days from the date of the first payment.

If a customer requests a refund and the refund is approved by Habitto1, the money for the requested transaction is refunded back to the customer, in part or whole. If the refund is for a recurring billing service, then the refund policy allows for the most recent payment to be refunded. Multiple payment refunds can be provided as long as they are within Habitto1's Refund Policy. A refund on a recurring billing service will also result in cancellation. Refunds will only be credited back to the account used to make the original purchase. If the original account has been closed, the service is not eligible for refund.

If a customer requests a refund and the refund is approved by Habitto1, the fees pertaining to the services directly provided by Habitto1 will be refunded. No refund is available for fees pertaining to services provided by third parties through Habitto1.

Reasons Why a Refund May Be Issued

Habitto1 has every incentive to keep customers happy by providing a quality service. To promote customer satisfaction, Habitto1 reserves the right to reverse a sale, including but not limited to the following:

- If the customer provides a valid reason for requesting a refund within 15 days of purchase;
- If the customer provides a valid report that the charge was fraudulent or unauthorized;
- In order to comply with credit card industry rules, ACH industry rules, PayPal terms of service, applicable law and regulations, and requests from verified judiciary or law enforcement agents; or
- For any other reason Habitto1 deems appropriate.

Refund & Cancellation Policy

Habitto1's Cancellation Policy

A customer may cancel a service with a recurring billing subscription at any time. A cancellation means that no future payments are charged to the customer's account. The cancellation of a recurring billing product does not generate a refund - it will only stop any future payments.

Abuse of The Refund Policy

Customers requesting serial or repeated refunds may be blocked from making further purchases. Customers that violate Habitto1's terms of service may have their right of refund revoked.
